

We Can Save You Money With Your Existing PBM Relationship

Crystal Clear Rx (CCRx) is an independent pharmacy benefits consulting firm that helps organizations best leverage their PBM contracts. They stand out from the competition by offering a variety of reports that help you spot pricing issues throughout the year instead at the end of it.

At CCRx, we provide ongoing monitoring and consulting, which means you'll get more than just a pharmacy benefits consultant when you work with us. Our relationship with existing clients has enabled us to save companies up to 15% on their benefit spend. The CCRx team is here to cut through the complexities and bring clarity to your PBM contracts so you too can achieve significant, lasting savings for your company

How does Crystal Clear Rx compare to other pharmacy benefits consultants?
